Information about Trial Grounds:

The 2012 ESAA National Field Trial Championship will be held at the prestigious Branched Oak State Park Field Trial area near Raymond, Nebraska. Located approximately 15 miles northwest of Lincoln, these trial grounds are managed specifically for field trialing by a unique and cooperative effort of the Nebraska Department of Fish and Game and the Nebraska Field Trial Association. It is the site of the 2002, 2007, 2013 AKC National Gun Dog Championships, and features 800 acres of rolling hills, brushy draws, and restored native grass areas, overlooking the scenic Branched Oak Reservoir. Facilities include a clubhouse with small kitchen, barn, limited electrical hook-ups, bird pen, and toilet facilities at the camp area

Climate: October Averages for Lincoln, Nebraska:

Average high: 66 degrees; Average low: 40 degrees. Average temp: 54 degrees;

Average precipitation in October: 2.1 inches

Field Trial Grounds Camping: Overnight camping is allowed at the field trial grounds. There are a few electrical hook-ups available which may be reserved for $6.00 per night. Please call the event treasurer for reservation at 641-420-2462

Branched Oak State Recreation Area Park Permit for PARK camping: A Park Permit is NOT required for those attending the event at the field trial grounds. However, if you choose to camp at the modern camping area on the south side of the lake, a permit is required ($4.00 daily, or $20.00 annual). Full campground facilities and showers are located on the south side of Branched Oak State Recreation Area, and sites vary in cost from $7.00 per night at the primitive sites to $17.00 per night for electrical hook-ups and close access to showers, water, and lift station. Showers are private and automatic, costing .25 cents for 5 minutes.

IMPORTANT HORSE HEALTH CERTIFICATIONS: Nebraska Dept. of Ag requires a Certificate of Veterinary Inspection and a negative Coggins. Review the following Nebraska Regulations: 1.) All horses coming into Nebraska need a Certificate of Veterinary Inspection (CVI) /health certificate, issued within 30 days prior to entry, and 2.) All horses, except those originating from South Dakota, and foals less than six months of age accompanying their dam, need to be tested and found negative for Equine Infectious Anemia (Coggins) within one year of entry. Carry extra copies of all certificates with you.

Personal Horse Facilities: At the Branched Oak Grounds, there are 24 small pens available, but those will be reserved for judges and the wrangler as needed. Participants should be prepared to stake out horses in the area designated. Water is easily accessible at two hydrants on the grounds.

Hay/Feed: Good quality horse hay (approx. 60 lb. bales) will be available for purchase on-site for the duration of the event at current market prices.

Feed/grain must be purchased on your own. A Tractor Supply Company store is located at exit 401 on I-80, about 20 miles from the grounds.

For additional horse travel information, visit: www.horsehotel.com, www.horsetrip.com, or www.overnightstabling.com. Local fairgrounds along your route may also be good places for brief stays.

Additional Information

Submitting your entries: Entries for the National Championships and Field Trial will be accepted by MAIL only—no phone, FAX, or email entries allowed. Entries must be accompanied by full payment. Make checks payable to:
ESAA, Inc. Checks and money orders must be drawn on US banks. Sign the waiver of signature if you are using Express mail service. The field trial secretary will not pick up FedEx or UPS deliveries that cannot be delivered to her home.

Send completed entries to: Larry Schwerdt, Field Trial Secretary,
C/O Sue Orlicky,
1006 So. 100th Street,
Seattle, WA, 98168

Entries close on Sunday, September 30, 2012 at 6:00 p.m.

Drawing will take place on Sunday, September 30, 2012 at 7:00 p.m.

Bitches in Season: Bitches in season may compete in both the National Championship and the National Amateur Championship stakes under AKC Field Trial Rules and Procedures for Pointing Breeds, chapter 17, Section 4, and will be re-braced according to Procedure 4-F. Should a handler wish to scratch a bitch in season from either of the championships stakes, he/she may do so and receive a refund of entry fee. Bitches in season may not compete in any other stakes. Refunds will be contingent upon examination of the bitch by the committee's designee or veterinary certification.

Running Orders: Running orders will be placed on the ESAA website (www.esaa.org) under the 2012 NFT link, by October 7. It will also be emailed to anyone requesting a copy and to all exhibitors providing a READABLE e-mail address.

Please submit request to: Susan Orlicky at bryteagle@juno.com
